

CAPE COD VIEWFINDERS CAMERA CLUB

FALL PHOTOGRAPHY SHOW

The Orleans Camera store at Skaket Corners, Orleans, has again invited the club to show its members' work this October.

The show follows the success of the Spring show in April when 50 images were hung and cash prizes and awards distributed for the best work.

Details follow:

Eligible work

- . Photographic art of all kinds by members in good standing.
- . There is no central theme to the show. Any subject is acceptable and every work will be judged based on its artistic worth.
- . Work must be wired and ready for hanging.*
- . Size: The frame of a work must not exceed 30" on any side except in the case of panoramic or similar images where exceptions will be considered. Call David @ 508-255-4603.
- . Maximum of three entries per individual member. Each print must be labeled with its priority. See next line.
- . Each entry must be labeled with artist's name, telephone number, title of work, price (if for sale, otherwise NFS) and hanging priority (#1,#2 & #3) in the event that not all entries can be accommodated.

Entry Fee

- . $6.00 per print by cash or cheque at drop-off.

Sales

- . Members are encouraged to offer their work for sale and price it accordingly. Orleans Camera will receive a 20% commission on sales.

Judging

- . Judging will be by an experienced, professional photographer at, or shortly before, the opening of the show.

Dates/Times

- . Are not yet finalized. October 1st is a Wednesday and October 31st (Halloween) is a Friday. I will let you know specific dates and times of drop-off and pickup in due course.

Questions

- . Please call, or email me: David Farquhar 508-255-4603 or djcf@bellatlantic.net

* NB Orleans Camera properly insists that all work be well-presented or it will not be hung.
