

NEW ENGLAND CAMERA CLUB COUNCIL, INCORPORATED

NECCC Fall 2009 Electronic Interclub Competition

The Fall competition was held on November 18, 2009, hosted by Boston West Photographic Society. The competition was directed by Harrison Ball assisted by Michael Roman, Steve Iadarola, and Dana Lane. Thirty-nine clubs participated in the Pictorial section (14 from Class A and 25 from Class B) and thirty-four clubs participated in the Nature section (12 from Class A and 22 from Class B). The judges for the competition were Dan Charbonnet, Sarah Musumeci, and Ian Dicker. Dan Charbonnet belongs to Stony Brook Camera Club as well as Greater Lynn. Ian Dicker belongs to Boston West Photographic Society (and notes that due to his job workload coupled with his wife's health and recuperation from surgery, he is not familiar with the club's material). Sarah Musumeci is a member of the Merrimack Valley Camera Club.

The three winning clubs in the Pictorial section Class A were:

Club	Score	Place
Greater Lynn	85	1st
Boston West	83	2nd
Merrimack Valley	82	3rd

The three winning clubs in the Pictorial section Class B were:

Club	Score	Place

The “Pick” photograph in applicable competitions was chosen by the judges to be published in the NECCC Bulletin. All First place photographs will receive the same score and ribbon.

Within the next week or so the winning and HM photos in both sections will be posted on the NECCC web site (www.NECCC.org). You might want to share that information with your club members who ask what types of photographs win.

Problems

This year a number of the clubs have a new representative sending in the photographs which resulted in a higher than usual number of photo sizing and file naming problems. All reps are asked to please, please, please check and double check the photograph sizing (1024 x 768 pixels maximum) and file naming. For this competition 39 clubs submitted 428 photographs. When everything is correct, processing each entry takes only a few minutes to check the size and naming and send an e-mail that the entry was received.

However, when we have to fix file naming problems or ask you to have a file resized and resubmitted, the amount of time is increased substantially.

The other thing I want to remind you of is to keep records so that you do not resubmit a photograph a second time. Also, be sure that none of your members are submitting an entry through another camera club. We check for entries being entered a second time and entries by the same maker from two or more clubs only after the competition has closed, not when the entry is received. When we discover an entry in violation of those two rules we have no choice but to disqualify the entry meaning that your club will have less than four entries in the competition. The e-mail sent after the entry is received saying everything is OK means the entry was received, the sizes are OK, the file naming is OK, and you haven't entered two entries by the same person in one category (pictorial or nature). Please keep records and check that your members aren't entering through another club.

New Nature Rules

Many of you may have heard that the PSA Nature Division updated their definition of nature at the convention held in West Yellowstone recently. The new definition is as follows:

"Nature photography is restricted to the use of the photographic process to depict observations from all branches of natural history, except anthropology and archeology, in such a fashion that a well informed person will be able to identify the subject material and to certify as to its honest presentation. The story telling value of a photograph must be weighed more than the pictorial quality while maintaining a high technical quality. Human elements shall not be present, except where those human elements enhance the nature story. The presence of scientific bands, scientific tags or radio collars on wild animals is permissible. Photographs of artificially produced hybrid plants or animals, mounted specimens, or obviously set arrangements, are ineligible, as is any form of manipulation that alters the truth of the photographic statement. No techniques that add to, relocate, replace, or remove pictorial elements except by cropping are permitted. Techniques that enhance the presentation of the photograph without changing the nature story or the pictorial content are permitted. All adjustments must appear natural."

This new definition means we have new freedom to use digital techniques to enhance our nature images. In two recent communications Dan Charbonnet added the following clarifying comments which help to understand the new rules:

"For most people, this means that the various HDR techniques are now allowed and it means blurring the background is now allowed, provided the results look natural."

"All images must be considered "Digital Realism," where a photographer may perform any enhancements and modifications that improve the presentation of the image to make it more closely represent the original scene photographed but that does not change the truth of the original nature story. Cropping and horizontal flipping (equivalent to reversing a slide) are acceptable modifications. Removing spots due to dust on your sensors is allowed. Removing rounded slide mount corners on scanned images is allowed. Adding elements to your images, removing pictorial elements from your image other than by cropping, combining separate images or rearranging and/or cloning and/or copying elements in your image are not still acceptable and can lead to disqualification of your image in the competition. Since HDR techniques and Helicon Focus techniques are techniques that enhance the presentation without changing the pictorial content, they are now considered allowable techniques. Please note that all adjustments must still look natural. Just because a technique is legitimate does not guarantee the image it was used on will get a good score."

Effective with the Winter competition this new definition will apply to the NECCC Nature Interclub. Keep in mind that we do not require images to meet the requirements of the PSA definition of Wildlife. Zoo shots and game farm shots are eligible provided the artificial habitat is not apparent in the image.

The final determination of what constitutes nature rests with our judges. The judges are instructed to give a low score to photographs that do not meet the definition. The directors do not determine if a nature image is legitimate.

If you have additional questions about this new definition we will try to answer them or attempt to get answers from persons who know more about the subject.

Next Competition

Winter Competition: The second NECCC Electronic Photograph Interclub Competition of the 2009-10 season will be held on Monday, February 8, 2010, hosted by the Westfield Camera Club. The location will be the Westfield Senior Center, 40 Main St., Westfield, MA 01085. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. The closing date for receipt of entries will be Monday, January 18, 2010.
